EDGE Group Entity BEACON RED Demonstrates its Bespoke Linguistic Capabilities at ACTFL 2022 in Boston

EDGE Group entity BEACON RED, an advanced solutions provider that focuses on tackling complex national security challenges, is showcasing its mission-relevant end-to-end linguistic solutions at the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) 2022 Annual Convention & World Languages Expo. The event is being held at the Boston Convention and Exhibition Center in Boston, Massachusetts until 20 November.

Marking its debut at the annual event, BEACON RED will present its bespoke language training solutions, intensive immersion techniques, language proficiency and performance tests, and cross cultural competence and regional orientation programmes. Designed to enhance national security ecosystems, BEACON RED's specialised synchronous and asynchronous language solutions are tailored to support all linguists from basic acquisition through to advanced enhancement, incorporating isolated immersions, scenario-based training, critical thinking, and analysis.

Mauricio de Almeida, CEO of BEACON RED, said: "We are delighted to showcase our comprehensive linguistic solutions to international clients at the ACTFL convention in Boston. BEACON RED is focused on strengthening national security preparedness throughout the Middle East and further afield to key markets, and we recognise that cross cultural communication ensures a decisive advantage for the future of all nations."

As one of the region's leading language service providers, BEACON RED also delivers translation and interpretation services, supporting organisations in achieving their international ambitions. Empowered by highly qualified and experienced linguists, and supported by the latest content management systems, the company recently expanded its offerings to provide a comprehensive suite of linguistic services for over 60 language pairs.
