EDGE Group Hosts Delegation from the Brazilian Air Force

EDGE, one of the world's leading advanced technology and defence companies, welcomed a high-ranking delegation from the Brazilian Air Force to its Abu Dhabi headquarters. Led by Commander Air Brigadier Lieutenant Marcelo Kanitz Damasceno, the visit focused on enhancing cooperation and showcasing EDGE's innovative capabilities in the UAE.

The delegation was received by Hamad Al Marar, Managing Director and CEO of EDGE, alongside Rodrigo Torres, President of Group Finance, EDGE, and Tiago Silva, CEO of EDGE's Latin America (LATAM) office. The group toured TAWAZUN Industrial Park (TIP), where they were introduced to EDGE subsidiaries HALCON, ALTARIQ, CARACAL, and ADASI, with presentations highlighting cutting-edge technologies in precision-guided munitions, autonomous systems, and other key capabilities.

This visit further solidifies the growing collaboration between the UAE and Brazil in the defence and technology sectors, reinforcing EDGE's position as a global leader in advanced solutions.
